His vision is to build a learning ecosystem in the holy lands of Thiruvannamalai & Kalikesh, aiming to restore our ancient Indian values such as honesty, family unity, a sense of community, compassion, brotherhood, equality, hard work, and a belief in spirituality.

He aims to make these values a way of life through our music, dance, sports, art, literature, architecture, clothing, meditation, Yoga, Traditional food and agriculture, medicines, wellness, conserving natural resources of Mother India, and avoiding pollution of land, air, and water.

The objectives are to be achieved with good infrastructure, funds, and expert mentors on par with international best universities.
